

ROXIE STEWART

Roxie Stewart is a native of northeast Louisiana. She is a convert to Catholicism many years ago when she met her husband, Robbie. They have been married for over 40 years and have two grown children, a son-in-law, two beautiful grandchildren, and a spoiled mini-Bernedoodle named Otis.

In her professional career, she practiced as a registered pharmacist in the hospital setting for many years. Her passion for the education component of her profession, which led her into academia where she taught at the University of Louisiana Monroe College of Pharmacy for nineteen years. She retired as a Clinical Professor.

Roxie is a 2020 graduate of the Oblate School of Theology Acts Spiritual Companion Program (ACTS) and has thoroughly enjoyed serving God and her community through ACTS.

She and her husband serve as Extraordinary Ministers of Holy Communion, and she is a member of the flower guild and sanctuary society at her parish. She is also a new spiritual reflection contributor for ACTS Missions.

Roxie loves starting her mornings with her Jesus and coffee and also spending quality time with her family, traveling with her dearest friends, shopping, quilting, and her new-found love for reading.

She very much looks forward to spending time with us in spiritual reflection and wishes peace to you and your families.
