

FR. JASON SCHUMER

Father Jason Schumer is a priest of the Archdiocese of Saint Louis. Born and raised in Perryville, Missouri (and the nephew of God-Minute-Team-member Sr. Carol), Fr. Schumer is a 2002 graduate of Saint Vincent High School. He attended Cardinal Glennon College Seminary in Saint Louis and the Pontifical North American College in Rome for seminary. He was ordained a priest in 2010.

As a priest, Fr. Schumer has served as an Associate Pastor, seminary professor, Archdiocesan liturgical Master of Ceremonies, and seminary Director of Worship. Since 2012, Fr. Schumer has served as the Saint Louis Archdiocesan Cursillo Spiritual Advisor, where he seeks to accompany the faithful into a deeper encounter with Jesus. He completed a doctorate in Liturgical Theology in 2017 from the Pontifical University of the Holy Cross in Rome. Currently, Fr. Schumer is the Vice Rector for Cardinal Glennon College at Kenrick-Glennon Seminary in Saint Louis, where he oversees the priestly formation program for college-aged seminarians.
